

Student Name: _____

Date: _____

What is a Habitat?

Directions: Fill in the blanks with the correct words from the word bank.

Every living thing has a _____. All living things interact with their environment and _____ each other. The area where _____ plant or animal lives is called its _____. Some habitats are _____, like the rainforest. Others are quite small, like your backyard.

A habitat is a place _____ a group of living things are well-suited to live in _____ same place at the same time. The group of living things of the same species is called a population. When all of the different populations living in the same area interact, they _____ a community. A habitat supplies the needs of the community. These needs include food, water, temperature, _____ and minerals.

Word Bank: where, home, with, a, the, habitat, large, form, oxygen

MINNESOTA ZOO
Changing how you see the world